

Position: Sales Representative

We are looking for a successful self employed forward thinking Ad Specialty sales person who is interested in partnering with us. By joining our team, you can keep your business and supplement your income with salary, health insurance (including dependent coverage), life insurance, long term disability as well as a 401K with a 4% company match. Our company will also provide access to new products and selling methods. This opportunity is not limited to the Dallas Fort Worth area.