

Join the Metcom Team for a B2B opportunity where we provide unmatched service to customers. Enjoy new challenges by learning an extensive customized product line by offering critical print, promotions, and supplies to targeted industries. A perfect role for those that want the responsibility to make educated decisions that affect the bottom line.

The Account Manager works with corporate clients to provide print, promo, branded apparel and industrial supplies. Responsibilities include maintaining positive relationships with clients and suppliers and coordinating projects to ensure items are produced according to specifications, delivered on time and ultimately meeting the customer's expectations.

Project management skills, attention to detail and outstanding communication skills are required in order to successfully coordinate projects. The Account Manager must be a highly motivated professional who takes initiative to meet customers' needs.

We seek an individual with a positive attitude, who is willing to accept responsibility and take on new challenges. This person is to be committed and faithful to give their best to whatever needs to be done. We look for self-starters, self motivators and thinkers. Someone who is teachable and eager to learn and to take up new duties and responsibilities.

Metcom offers work-life balance with no late hours and no overtime. As part of the Metcom team, there is individualized opportunity for personal and professional growth and development. By modeling Christian virtues, we strive to cultivate a family-like employee culture where justice, kindness and appreciation come before sales and profits. After the training period, remote work opportunities are available. Health benefits, including vision are offered. Benefits also include 401k, profit sharing and paid time off.
